

A spring break stay for every kind of traveler

Across our hotel categories, Team Members in Florida bring warmth and hospitality to one of America's top spring destinations.

Hilton Lobby Buzz
Friday, February 27, 2026

Spring break is almost here, and according to new Hilton.com search data, Florida is back on top of searched-for spring break destinations in the continental U.S.

Whether guests are chasing luxury, breathtaking views, local vibes, or just some extra space to spread out, Team Members meet them where they are this spring break, ready to deliver unforgettable stays across every hotel category.

Luxury | Conrad Orlando
Elevated stays powered by thoughtful service

For travelers looking to elevate their stay, Conrad Orlando offers the ultimate all-ages playground. Situated on beach paradise Evermore Bay, guests can dip into crystal-clear waters, stretch out on soft sand, and play all day on saddleboards, kayaks, ropes swings, swim zones, and shaded hammocks. With sleek accommodations, upscale dining, and polished design, it's an escape within an escape that's ideal for those who want an enhanced retreat after long days exploring all that Central Florida has to offer.

Full Service | Hilton Marco Island Beach Resort and Spa
Gulf views with everything you could possibly want

Hilton Marco Island Beach Resort and Spa makes a welcoming beachfront retreat. Guests can enjoy a heated outdoor pool, expansive sun deck, and a pristine white sand beach, plus easy access to watersports and local excursions. The on-site spa offers a full menu of treatments that are ideal for unwinding after a day in the sun, making this serene hideaway the perfect home base for soaking up the quieter side of spring break.

Lifestyle | Sunseeker Resort Florida Gulf Coast, Curio Collection by Hilton
Floridian vibes meet personalized service

Sunseeker Resort Florida Gulf Coast brings resort-style spring break energy to one of Florida's most distinctive waterfront destinations. Set along Charlotte Harbor, the expansive property blends a destination resort hotel with suites-only towers, a marina, dining venues, and social spaces designed for guests who want both relaxation and connection. From welcoming arrivals to guiding guests through the resort's many experiences, Team Members help create a stay that feels vibrant, immersive, and unmistakably Floridian — perfect for travelers looking to experience the Gulf Coast in a fresh, lifestyle-driven way.

Focused-Service | Tru by Hilton Orlando Convention Center
Comfort and convenience on a budget

For travelers seeking playful style and great value near Orlando's top attractions, Tru by Hilton Orlando Convention Center offers modern rooms, a vibrant lobby, and a refreshing outdoor pool. Guests enjoy free hot breakfast every morning, featuring the signature Top It bar with pancakes and a variety of toppings to mix and match. Pets are also welcome, making this a smart pick for families and friends looking to maximize their spring break fun.

Where will spring break take you?

Don't forget to use your Go Hilton benefits, including discounted rates and exclusive perks through your Team Member Hilton Honors account.

Read more